The Nixon Veto;
Virtue of the Missing Dollar

War puts the economy on a high level, unwinding a war takes it down a notch—but the uproar over President Nixon's veto of the 5.6-billion-dollar public works bill Tuesday is ridiculous.

Most of the noise, you will note, comes from state and local officials. Public officials quickly get used to big federal grants, not having to raise the money with local taxes—so they like the wartime life and denounce any crackdown by Washington.

On the other hand, President Nixon was elected to wind down the war and end America's war-borne habit of spending more than she takes in in taxes. We're certainly not going to perpetuate a war just to continue high employment at home, and nothing in the economy at present seems to require a revival of the WPA of depression days.

The president takes the view any federal works program ought to wait until the armed forces are mustered out to a normal level—and then judge whether business needs emergency help.

That there is an economic pinch in some quarters, however, is obvious. When money was more plentiful prodigal university students were going around the campus throwing rocks at big corporation recruiters offering them jobs. But, like the water missing from the proverbial dry well, a shortage of dollars changes attitudes and restores old virtues.

Big companies like Sperry-Rand and Dow Chemical told today's edition of the Wall Street Journal their recruiters are getting the welcome hand on today's campus recruiting campaigns.

Critical of Redistrict Planning

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Jerry Jewell, state president of the NAACP, criticized the plan of legislative redistricting adopted by the state Board of Apportionment Tuesday saying it "wiped out" the black vote in some areas.

The board adopted a single-member plan of redistricting for the Senate. In the House, however, the board adopted a plan of 10 multimember districts, with the rest being single-member districts.

Jewell talked with Gov. Dale Bumpers, the board's chairman, after Tuesday's meeting and expressed his displeasure with the multimember House districts.

He said the governor told him he favored single-member districts wherever they were feasible.

Business Up for Glass Co.

RENSSELAER, N.Y. (AP) — Robert Albright, the owner of the Albany-Rensselaer Paint and Glass Co. has a lot to smile about today, despite his missing front window.

Wreckers working on a Hudson River bridge between Rensselaer and Albany set off a series of explosions Tuesday evening, razing a bridge tower, but taking with it some 100 windows in the two cities.

Yet, none of the glass company's inventory, only a few yards from the bridge, was damaged.

Business looking up?
"I would expect so. Yes, indeed," said Albright.

Enemy Guns Wipe Out Big Arms Depot

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong mortars wiped out the biggest ammunition depot in the central region of South Vietnam today, and military sources said allied operations in the region may be seriously imperiled for several days.

The enemy mortars hit the depot at Qui Nhon, 265 miles northeast of Saigon, for the second day in succession, destroying more than 10,000 tons of artillery shells, bombs and other ammunition, sources said. The attack Tuesday had destroyed at least 2,500 tons.

"It was like a volcano erupted," one American eyewitness reported. "The sky was lit up all night."

The explosions shook down ramshackle houses half a mile away.

Initial reports said four South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and 11 were wounded. The attack Tuesday morning killed three soldiers and wounded at least two civilians.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Office of Economic Opportunity approved Tuesday $159,205 in grants to five Arkansas counties. The individual grants are:

—$33,400 to the Crawford-Sebastian Community Development Council, Inc., at Van Buren to provide manpower and career development services for the disadvantaged.

—$25,000 to Ozark Opportunities, Inc., at Harrison for emergency food and medical services in Newton, Baxter, Searcy, Boone, Van Buren, and Marion counties.

—$30,000 to the Economic Opportunity Agency of Washington County, Inc., for emergency food and medical services.

—$40,805 to the Southwest Arkansas Development Council, Inc., for emergency food and medical service in Miller, Little River, Hempstead, Howard and Lafayette counties.

—$30,000 to Arkansas River Valley Activities Council, Inc., at Dardanelle to establish a multi-county housing development corporation for Yell, Franklin, Logan, Scott, Pope, Conway, Johnson, and Perry counties.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed the emergency employment act, 75 to 11, Tuesday and House leaders said they will try to send it to the White House before the 4th of July recess begins Thursday.

The Senate vote came just hours after Nixon's veto of a $5.6-billion public works bill he called too slow to fight soaring unemployment. But the President reversed an earlier stand and urged prompt approval of the compromise measure to create temporary jobs which he said could be filled quickly.

Meanwhile, Democrats announced plans to try to override the veto after the recess, although they conceded privately there is little chance. The Senate on June 8 passed the final version 45 to 33, or seven votes short of a two-thirds majority necessary to override.

The political overtones are clear in the fight over the jobs and the economy which Democrats expect to make a campaign issue in the 1972 presidential elections.

Senate Democratic presidential hopefuls joined in attacking the President for his public-works-bill veto. They said the key program criticized by Nixon could have supplied 420,000 jobs.

Nixon said, however, a similar law in 1962 indicated an 18-month time lag before it would become fully effective. By that time, he said, "further stimulation would be unnecessary and inflationary."

Sponsors of the public-service-jobs bill estimated it would create 150,000 to 200,000 jobs in state and local governments the first year if fully funded.

It would take effect when the national jobless rate is 4 1/2 per cent or more; it now is 6.2 per cent.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The state Public Service Commission (PSC) said late Tuesday afternoon that gas and electric public utilities in Arkansas could not use certain promotion activities unless the PSC approves the activities first on an individual basis.

The ruling is effective immediately. However, the commission said that the companies could continue promotion activities already legally contracted.

The new regulations say that the PSC will permit promotional practices that "stimulate fair and vigorous competition among utilities" but will prohibit use of promotional practices that are "excessive or unduly discriminatory."

The commission held the hearing Tuesday after it said it feared companies were promoting the use of the utilities products at the same time there was a definite possibility that customers would be required to cutback on usage because of shortages.

McClellan Votes With Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., voted with the majority Tuesday as the Senate rejected a move to cut military spending to a $66 billion annual rate, $7 billion below President Nixon's budget.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., voted for the measure.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court on a 6 to 3 vote today permitted the New York Times and the Washington Post to publish stories based on the secret Pentagon study of the Vietnam war.

The majority opinion said the government had not met the burden of showing justification for a restraint. Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justices Harry A. Blackmun and John M. Harlan dissented.

The decision affirmed the judgment of the federal appeals court here allowing the Post to publish, and reversed the judgment of the federal appeals court in New York that had prevented the Times from printing material to which the government objected.

In addition to the short, unsigned majority opinion there were six concurring opinions and three dissents filed.

Voting for the newspapers and against the government, which had argued that unfettered publication could damage the nation's security, were Justices Hugo L. Black, William O. Douglas, William J. Brennan Jr., Potter Stewart, Byron R.

Speaking at FBI National Academy graduation exercises, Nixon also said that while FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover may be controversial "the great majority of the American people back Mr. Hoover and back law enforcement officials."

Having known Hoover for the past 24 years, Nixon said, "I can say from experience that he is a man who has never served a party. He has always served his country and he deserves credit for that."

Nixon, Turks Have Plan to Combat Dope

By FRANK CORMIER

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon personally announced today a plan by the Turkish Government to eliminate by mid 1972 the production there of opium poppies—estimated to account for 60 per cent of the illegal heroin used in the United States.

Appearing before newsmen at the White House, Nixon said the action by Turkey is "by far the most significant breakthrough that has been achieved in stopping the source of supply of heroin."

The President called the move by Prime Minister Nihat Erim a very courageous and statesman-like action.

Flanking him as he spoke were Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Melih Esenbel, Turkey's ambassador to the United States.

Esenbel told newsmen that halting poppy production—a legitimate agricultural enterprise in his country for many centuries—certainly will cause "internal problems" and "some economic dislocation."

Rogers said the United States will provide money and technical assistance to help Turkey replace poppy production with other cash crops. He said the amount of such aid is yet to be determined.

The secretary estimated the annual value of Turkey's poppy crop at between $3 million and $5 million.

Until the ban on poppy-growing goes into effect, Rogers said, Turkey will attempt more stringent licensing and control of current output.

He also said the Turkish government plans to buy up as much of the current crop as possible at premium prices with the aim of keeping it out of illicit channels.

Rogers said six other nations harvest legal poppy crops and reported that the United States is attempting to persuade each of them to follow the stand taken by Turkey.

Soviet Cosmonauts Die in Spaceship Returning From a Record Flight

Deaths Prove Space Flight Is Risky

By HOWARD BENEDICT

AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The tragic deaths today of Russia's three Soyuz 11 cosmonauts underscores once again that manned space flight is risky, that men die in its pursuit just as they did in the early days of aviation.

They die despite the most strenuous safety measures, the double and triple redundancy built in to try to insure the integrity of the hardware. But space is still a new frontier with many unknowns.

The cause of the cosmonauts' deaths is not now publicly known. The Soviet news agency Tass said only that Georgy Dobrovolsky, Vladislav Volkov and Viktor Patsayev were Soyuz 11 linked up on June 7 with the 17 1/2-ton space laboratory Salute, which had been orbiting the earth unmanned since April 19. The cosmonauts transferred to the bigger space lab and orbited the earth in it for nearly 23 days in what appeared to be a highly successful advance toward the permanent manned space station which is the goal of the present Soviet space program.

Deaths Prove Space Flight Is Risky

Serious Crime Continues Rise in U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Serious crime continued to rise nationally in the first three months of 1971, up 6 per cent from the same period last year, but Attorney Gen. John N. Mitchell said crime actually declined in 61 large cities.

Although property crimes increased less rapidly in the first quarter of 1971 than in the first quarter of 1970, violent crimes increased a bit faster.

But Mitchell pointed out today, in releasing FBI crime statistics, that the overall 6 per cent increase was considerably below the 13 per cent hike between 1969 and 1970. It was the lowest rate of increase in five years, he added.

The 61 cities that experienced a drop in the total number of crimes reported between 1970 and 1971 were among 154 U.S. cities with a population of 100,000 or more. Mitchell said statistics for the first quarter of 1970 showed 20 cities with fewer reported crimes than in the comparable period of 1969.

Property crimes—burglary, auto theft and larceny of $50 or more—increased by 5 per cent between the first quarter of 1970 and 1971, compared with a 13 per cent increase between 1969 and 1970.

Violent crimes—murder, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault—increased by 13 per cent between 1970 and 1971, compared with a 12 per cent hike between 1969 and 1970.

The rate of increase in all crimes was highest—12 per cent from 1970 to 1971—in the six U.S. cities with a million or more population. Inexplicably, the 20 cities with between one million and 500,000 population recorded an average decrease of 4 per cent in reported crime.

Educational Vouchers Considered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supreme Court disapproval of some forms of state aid to parochial schools has given a boost to a congressional proposal for issuing educational vouchers to each U.S. family.

Under the plan, strongly opposed by many public school officials, parents could use the voucher to send their children to any school they choose.

The Office of Economic Opportunity is conducting a limited experiment with the voucher system in several school districts, but it has never been considered by Congress.

Now, Rep. Roman C. Pucinski, D-Ill., chairman of the House general education subcommittee, says he will try to provide for a voucher plan in a general school aid bill on which he is working.

A Roman Catholic with a large Catholic constituency in his Chicago district, Pucinski said Tuesday he was bitterly disappointed by the Supreme Court decision that held unconstitutional teacher any supplements or "excessive entanglements" between government and church schools in Rhode Island and Pennsylvania.

In the last three years more than 1,000 parochial schools have been closed and the entire system is threatened by lack of funds, Pucinski said.

If the parochial schools are forced to shut down and the 4.3 million pupils attending them are placed in the public schools, he said, the public school system will be in danger of bankruptcy.

Pucinski has drafted a bill to provide a family with a $100 voucher for each school-age child, which could be cashed in at either a public or private school.

Supporters of the voucher plan say it would invigorate education by introducing competition into the system, but its opponents say it would drain money, pupils and teachers from the public school system and eventually undermine it.

Pucinski is planning to try to attach his voucher proposal to a bill that also calls for greatly increased federal support for the public schools.

Although voucher plans funded by the OEO are in various stages of planning in Seattle, Wash., San Jose, Calif., Rockland, Maine, and San Francisco, the OEO has not endorsed the idea but says it wants to find out whether it will work.

Mitchell Says Laws Benefit the Accused

By MARK BROWN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A "tidal wave of legalisms" that benefit the accused are frustrating society's right to see prompt apprehension, speedy trial and swift punishment of criminals, Attorney Gen. John N. Mitchell said today.

"Every conceivable twisting and turning of words is used to weigh the side of the defendant—in many cases far beyond the intent and often even the language the framers of the Constitution," Mitchell said.

"Every conceivable twisting and turning of words is used to unbalance the side of the people, represented by the police and the prosecutor," he told graduates of the FBI's National Academy.

"The result, already visible, is longer trials and appeals crowded courts and a lack of finality in conviction that produces prisoners who believe they will beat the rap and would-be criminals who laugh at the idea that crime doesn't pay."

He told his audience of police officers from around the country and from abroad that policemen now face "a new menace—the violence of extremists who are proclaimed enemies of the police, and often of government itself."

"The true concept of justice, he contended, is a set of scales balancing the rights of the individual against the rights of society."

"If all the rights that exist are the property of the individual and the people as a whole have none, then we cannot be any tortured reasoning claim that we have a system of justice," Mitchell said.

President Nixon, meantime, accepted a role in the pageant produced, directed and starred in by J. Edgar Hoover.

18 Vote Amendment Is Close

By DON McLEOD
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Record quick approval of the 18-year-old-vote amendment is so close now the states have begun jockeying to see which will have the distinction of making it official.

Illinois completed ratification Tuesday, bringing the total to 35 states. Legislatures in five more states are poised to act next, which would be more than enough to put it over.

Ratification by 38 states is needed to give citizens 18 years and older the vote in all elections. If passed, the measure would be the 26th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

Both houses of the Alabama legislature have ratified the amendment, but bickering over which chamber concurs in the other's version gave a new chance to its opponents. Ultimate passage still is expected.

The North Carolina House has passed a ratification resolution, but the Senate has been putting it off day-by-day.

The Ohio Senate passed it 30 to 2 Tuesday, and sources in the House said chances appeared good for final action this week.

The Oklahoma Legislature convenes Thursday in special session and quick ratification there is expected. Wyoming lawmakers convene Monday for the same purpose.

A record for speedy ratification seems assured. The Congress completed action on the amendment March 23 and five

Congress Is Considering a Tax Cut

By EDWARD LEBRETON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress still may consider a tax cut to stimulate the economy, says the principal architect of tax legislation, even though President Nixon has said he will not seek one.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, said in an interview the White House policy statement Tuesday has not changed his mind: He still intends to study the midyear economic data and decide whether to propose tax changes that would release more spendable funds to the private sector.

"I haven't ruled anything out and I haven't decided on anything," Mills said.

However, he is quick to consider the quickest-acting tonic to the economy would be revival, in some form, of the investment tax credit repealed in 1969.

Any such business tax relief, it was understood, necessarily would be accompanied by some easing of individual taxes, likely by a speedup of future exemption and deduction liberalizations already written into existing law.

The investment credit allowed businesses to charge off directly against their taxes 7 per cent of their investment in equipment.

Mills and the tax specialists of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation believe a renewed investment credit would take effect much faster than the liberalized depreciation writeoff provisions the Treasury already has put into effect.

The credit would be available as soon as the investment is made, rather than over a period of years, they contend, and mere announcement of its renewal would trigger a stepup in business investment, one of the economic sectors now performing more sluggishly than had been hoped.

And the committee specialists say resumption of the allowance would create jobs.

Under present law, the personal exemption a taxpayer may claim for himself, and each of his dependents is $650 this year. It is scheduled to go up to $700 in 1972 and $750 in 1973.

Bumpers to Protest Nixon Veto

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Tuesday that he plans to protest President Nixon's veto of a public works bill containing funds for the Ozarks Regional Commission.

Bumpers said he intended to contact members of Arkansas' congressional delegation to discuss the veto.

Bumpers said he thought there may be enough strength to override the veto. He said he thought there was a good chance of overriding the veto in the House, but possibly not in the Senate.

The governor said about $7 million in the bill was earmarked for the Ozarks Commission and that about $2 million of this amount would have gone to Arkansas.

He said there is a possibility that the proposed Little Rock Convention Center would be dead "until they get this resolved."

Both the Ozarks Commission and the Economic Development Administration (EDA) had committed funds to the project. EDA funds were also in the vetoed bill.

"I think, considering the state of the economy, it is an incredible veto," the governor said.

He said there had been no other time in the country when an economic development program was more needed.

He said he assumed Nixon vetoed the bill in a bid to gain congressional support for his revenue-sharing program.

Nixon asked Congress to promptly enact an administration-backed emergency employment act after he vetoed the bill. The measure Nixon favors contains funds for the Ozarks Regional Commission and has cleared a Senate-House conference committee.

No TV Show But This Arnold Is a Very Smart Pig Too

This Arnold, not the one on television, but he's a pretty sharp hog too. Arnold is getting his supper from an Angus cow right along with the cow's calf. In fact he gets a couple of meals a day that way. Arnold makes like a calf at feeding time and will eat hay right along with the other calves. He loves to make a pig of himself by wallowing in the mud.

Born to a big litter Arnold was given to Barney Powell of Patmos Rt. 1 who started raising him on a bottle. It didn't take him long to find out where that milk was coming from and he eliminated that middle man. This particular cow and calf will tolerate Arnold but none of the others on the Powell farm will. Arnold really doesn't mind and he's smart enough to know when the cows come home.

Warm, Humid Air Covers Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Warm, humid air continues to cover Arkansas with little change in sight, and the possibility of afternoon and evening thundershowers is still in the forecast.

A weak frontal system is expected to drift slowly into northwestern Arkansas by late Thursday and become stationary. Due to the weakness of this frontal system, the only change expected is increased cloudiness and slightly cooler daytime temperatures.

Thundershowers were active again Tuesday, occurring mainly in the southern and western portions of the state. Generally, these thundershowers were less intense than those of Monday afternoon, but small hail and gusty winds were reported at Fordyce.

Afternoon temperatures Tuesday again reached the upper 80s to low 90s with the highest reading 93 degrees at Jonesboro. Fort Smith and Harrison were at the other end of the high temperature range with readings of 87 degrees.

Overnight lows around the state include Fayetteville 68, Harrison 70, Jonesboro 72, Pine Bluff 71, Texarkana 71, El Dorado 66, Memphis 72, Little Rock 70, and Fort Smith 69.

Rainfall reports for the 24-hour period ended at 7 a.m. include .02 of an inch at Harrison, .07 at El Dorado, and traces at Pine Bluff, Texarkana and Little Rock.

NIXON SAYS

as a presidential candidate, Nixon pledged administration support to law enforcement officials in their attempt to reestablish respect for the law.

Saying he had dropped by to give the 100 police officials from all 50 states and from abroad a message, Nixon said "don't get discouraged."

He said that, while it has been fashionable among some to attack the police and law enforcement, "The great majority of the American people do provide backing for the men who risk their lives for our lives."

The twice-yearly graduation exercises of the Academy brought together on the same stage the nation's top three law and order men: Nixon, Hoover and Attorney Gen. John N. Mitchell.

Mitchell, in his remarks, decried what he termed "a tidal wave of legalisms" that is frustrating society's right to see prompt arrest, speedy trial and swift punishment of criminals.

Investigation of Fatal Shooting

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Officials of the Pulaski County Sheriff's office said an investigation is continuing into the fatal shooting of Paul P. Guajardo, 35, of near Little Rock.

DEATHS PROVE

found dead in their capsule after landing in the Soviet Union following their record 24-day flight, most of it spent in the Salu space laboratory.

There could have been a failure in the life support system. Or maybe the sudden return to Earth's gravity after a long period of weightlessness affited the spacemen in an adverse way.

There will be a long investigation—as there were after earlier space tragedies in both the American and Soviet programs.

The fault probably will be found and corrected, and cosmonauts once again will fly into space.

Russia has declared its intention to develop a permanent orbiting space station, and the Salute is a forerunner.

The Soviet determination is evidenced in the over-all Salute mission. The laboratory was launched unmanned April 19 and four days later Soyuz 10 with three cosmonauts was launched to link up with it.

They did on April 24, but disengaged after 5½ hours and returned to earth.

Experts apparently analyzed the problem on the ground and on June 6 Soyuz 11 soared aloft to complete the mission. Today's tragedy probably will delay, but not halt the program.

Atty. Wants Report of Escape

DES ARC, Ark. (AP)—Prosec. Atty. Sam Weems of Des Arc has asked Gov. Dale Bumpers office for a "detailed report" on the escape of Daniel L. Graham, 31, from Cummins Prison Farm.

Graham is being sought for questioning in connection with the fatal shooting of two employees of the Safeway Grocery Store in Springdale after the robbery of about $1,000.

Graham escaped from the prison May 31 when he walked off a work detail. He had been serving a life sentence for the kidnapping of Mrs. Margaret Clayton from her home near Deval's Bluff in December 1969.

Weems said in a letter Friday to Garry Brewer, the governor's aide on prison affairs, that there are many rumors in the Des Arc community concerning Graham and the residents would like to have a report.

State May Not Have Delegates

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A former state Democratic party chairman said Tuesday night that it appeared the state Democratic party would have delegates to the 1972 national convention only if a special session of the legislature were called.

Charles D. Matthews said he is unaware of any action by the national party which would create an exception for states in a predicament like Arkansas.

In 1968 the convention ruled that 80 per cent of the states' delegates had to be elected. Twenty per cent of the delegates are appointed.

The state Democratic party decided that the delegates would be elected during the March 1972 school elections. However, the General Assembly said that the delegates would be elected during the general primary the second week in July. Legislators argued that school elections should not be tied with partisan matters.

The party's national convention opens July 9, 1972, but the primary election would not be held until July 13.

Matthews said only the general assembly could help by changing the primary date.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — CBS and Walter Cronkite concluded their two-part report on American prisoners of war in North Vietnam with an hour that concentrated primarily on the discouraged, worried families of the captured men.

Many wives, including some whose husbands have been held for seven years, talked—rather bleakly—of the importance of taking one day at a time, of the problems of raising children without a father. Some seemed disillusioned about the lack of progress; one or two appeared angry that little had been accomplished. Women whose husbands have been listed as "missing" for several years seemed the most baffled.

Cronkite noted that in recent years President Nixon has "gone public" on the subject, talking about their plight often, while President Johnson preferred to use quiet diplomacy. Neither has proved effective. Since international criticism of Hanoi's treatment of prisoners, he said, the propaganda-sensitive North Vietnamese have permitted more exchanges of mail—and have taken a lot of film showing the treatment they claim they are giving the men.

Since the release of the war prisoners is tied into the question of American withdrawal, it was impossible to come to any conclusions or even make any predictions.

Wrote Music Credited to Others

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The heir of Mexican composer Manuel Ponce said today that Ponce wrote many compositions for Spanish guitarist Andres Segovia that were attributed to other composers.

Carlos Vazquez, a concert pianist and Ponce's legal heir, said in an interview that Segovia, faced with a lack of original compositions for guitar, asked Ponce to write baroque and classical music for him.

Vazquez explained that when he visited Segovia in 1964 in Madrid the guitarist promised to give Ponce credit for the compositions in his memoirs, but gave him permission to announce what he called their "joke" earlier in Mexico.

Ponce was born in 1882 and died in 1948.

Dear Helen:

Here's a different letter about in-laws. I feel sorry for those who need the term. I gained a Mother, not an in-law. Most problems are created by the new husband's failure to realize that any mother worthy of the name wants the best for her daughter—that's the protective instinct.

Our mother was no different, and I did not have her approval in the beginning, but I won her love and affection by doing the things she wanted for her child. I showed my love and respect. I shared my life with my family, helped with the kids, and soon I was "her son."

It was so with her and Pa for 28 years. Now that she's gone, I miss her.—CLIFF

Dear Helen:

You're right, Helen. If a girl really loves a man, she accepts his profession. If she refuses to marry him because of the work he does, he can consider himself lucky.

I married a mortician. Being a funeral director is a profession just as important as any other. I've seen any group with more compassion for people and with more real humanity and humor. My husband is lovable and loving and he never takes advantage of people in their moments of grief. The boy who wants to become a mortician should not worry about getting a wife.—MRS. M.

Says Sinatra Is Not Ill

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Frank Sinatra's agent, deluged with whispers in the night and we-hor calls that Sinatra is rumored ill, says the now-retired crooner may be forced to hold a news conference proclaiming his good health.

"It's getting ridiculous," said agent Jim Mahoney after being roused late Monday to deny rumors heard by a newspaper that the 55-year-old entertainer was in a Buffalo, N.Y., hospital.

Mahoney said rumors on Sinatra's health went wild after he announced his retirement from public life some two months ago.

Suggests Mental Test to See Whether All Your Gears Are Groovy

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — How's your belfry today? Any bats batting around in it?

The question has you worried, doesn't it? The world is so weird that it's hard to say whether you're in it or out of it, isn't it?

So maybe we'd better give you a quick mental checkup to see whether all your gears are grooving, right? Okay, here we go. All you have to do is answer the following questions:

Have you ever written an anonymous letter to your congressman?

When your wife is ill and you have to do the laundry, how many cups of detergent do you use? One to three? Four to five?

If you really got mad enough to kill somebody, would you rather do it by shooting him with a bow and arrow, pouring molten lead on him, or stuffing him with sandy spinach? Would the fact that lead is poisonous affect your decision?

As a child did you ever get your hands spanked for putting beans up your nose?

Are you still afraid of gypsies? Thunder and lightning? Your boss? Your mother-in-law's only daughter?

Can you light a cigarette with your left hand while chinning yourself with your right hand?

Does it make you feel sexy all over when you hear somebody say "vice versa"?

When you see a picture on television showing a family eating, do you head for the refrigerator for a snack at the first program break?

Is there any heredity in your family? If so, how much?

If no one in the supermarket was looking, which would you steal first: a can of dog food, a package of cat food, or a frozen breaded veal cutlet?

Can you look yourself in the eye and honestly tell yourself that you are exactly the kind of man your mother wanted you to grow up to be? If not, what defect in your mother's character caused you to fail?

Can you recall any occasion when the knowledge of algebra you gained as a high school freshman helped save your life later? Is this your fault?

How low down can you sometimes get when you're really feeling high?

If you transpose a juxtaposition in a right angle triangle, is that legal justification for you to transfuse an adenoidal octoploid?

Those are the questions. Now I suppose you want to know your score. Well, first let me ask you one final question, and then you can probably figure out your own score.

Do you think anyone who takes the time to sit down and answer a series of questions like these is anywhere normal to begin with?

Court Clears Church, State Entanglement

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has shelved any notion of a thick constitutional "wall" between church and state, replacing it with the theory government may aid religious institutions provided there is no "excessive entanglement."

This doctrine, spun out by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger in three rulings Monday, commands a majority of the court and appears to leave considerable room for aiding church schools, indirectly and directly.

Clearly, the states can no longer make direct payments to teachers in these schools. But other forms of assistance, including free bus transportation and the loan of textbooks, have the court's approval.

In sum, the legal squabble over use of tax money to help church-affiliated institutions has not ended. It has simply moved to a different theoretical plane.

"The crucial question," said Burger, "is not whether some benefit accrues to a religious institution as a consequence of the legislative program, but whether its principal or primary effect advances religion."

Using this new caliper, the court approved 5 to 4 the federal program of direct construction grants to private colleges to build libraries, gymnasiums and laboratories.

Such buildings are "religiously neutral," Burger said, dismissing what he called the "simplistic argument" that every form of financial aid to church-sponsored activity violates the 1st Amendment.

But, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island laws authorizing teacher subsidies were struck down on votes of 8 to 0 and 8 to 1 "because as we see it they involve excessive entanglements between church and state," the chief justice said in announcing the rulings from the bench.

Even good-willed teachers are not likely to be neutral about religion when they are under religious control and discipline, he said.

But what about other forms of assistance? For example, transportation of parochial-school pupils provided by 24 states and the supply of textbooks in seven states.

Like construction grants to church-run colleges and tax ex-

Howard Explains Name Change

V. E. Howard, Chairman of the Board of HOWARD-GIBCO CORPORATION makes the following statement concerning the ownership and operation of the HOWARD DISCOUNT CENTER, formerly known as Gibson Discount Center, in Hope.

"The Gibson Products Company of Seagoville or Dallas, nor any person related in any way to the Gibson family, has never owned one penny stock in our firm known as Gibson Discount Center, Gibson Associates, Inc. or Gibson Wholesale Distributors, Inc. of Texarkana. These firms have been completely owned and operated by us, formerly known as Gibson Discount Centers, reorganized as HOWARD-GIBCO CORPORATION in October 1969 and became a public corporation, with stock being sold over the counter.

We were the first Gibson franchise store owners, such franchise granting the right to use the Gibson name in group purchasing of merchandise. The right was granted for a fixed fee, which was paid by our firm, with no percentage or participation in the company's sales or profits in any form whatsoever.

We were the first, together with Howard Bros. Discount Stores of Monroe, La., a total of 65 stores, to cancel the Gibson franchise agreement. We took this action because, under the circumstances, we were convinced that it was to the best interest of our customers and our stockholders.

We are most grateful to the citizens of Hope and surrounding area for the patronage of the many thousands of customers since the very beginning our business operation.

With the support of our customers we have grown from one small store to 29 stores in five states with a gross volume of sales of $56,400,000.00 in 1970.

Our business has not changed in ownership nor operation. We cancelled the Gibson franchise and changed our store identity name. The foundation of our business is based on honesty and integrity, and we pledge that HOWARD DISCOUNT STORES will continue to give our customers the greatest selection of name brand merchandise at the lowest discount prices. By buying direct from the manufacturers now on a more direct basis, we expect to pass on to our customers greater savings than ever, with courteous service, and guaranteed satisfaction with every purchase."

Player May Not Compete in US Again

MONTREAL (AP) — Gary Player may have competed in his last regular tour event in the United States this year. "I don't know whether I'll be playing in the States again this year or not," the little South African said today before teeing off in a practice round preceding the $150,000 Canadian Open Golf Tournament. "It all depends on how I do here and in the British Open next week. "If I win one of them, well, I probably won't be back again," the muscular Johannesburg rancher said.

Would Halt Uhlaender's Retirement

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Indians manager Alvin Dark says he hopes to talk to Ted Uhlaender today to see if he can persuade the Tribe outfielder to forego his announced retirement plans. Uhlaender jumped the team Sunday in New York, reportedly over the illness of his daughter, but Tuesday, in a tape interview with Don Calo of radio station WHK, said, "I'm quitting baseball ... right now there's nothing that will bet me to come back."

Uhlaender, a native of McAllen, Texas, said he plans to devote fulltime to his father's wholesale hardware business in which he is a partner. The Cleveland Plain Dealer contacted Uhlaender's father, Henry, and the newspaper quoted him as saying: "Ted called me today and asked if I have room for him in my business because he wants to quit baseball. I told Ted 'Of course I've got room in the business' but I also asked him to take another day and think about things, and then decide for sure what he wants to do."

BASEBALLLOGY

HOLDING RUNNER ON BASE

Holding the runner on base is a figurative strategy, though there have been cases where the first baseman (who usually does most of the "holding") has surreptitiously fingered the runner, out of view of the umpire, to slow down his takeoff.

There's a dual responsibility, for both the pitcher and the fielder, in keeping a runner close to the bag. Too often catchers have been unfairly blamed for stolen bases when actually the pitcher wasn't paying enough attention to the business of holding the runner on base. Left-handers, of course, have a natural advantage because they're looking right at the runner, while the

Johnson to File Grievance

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The California Angels acted improperly in the indefinite suspension of Alex Johnson and he plans to file a grievance, Marvin Miller, director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, has told a newspaper.

Miller, reached in New York City by the Los Angeles Times, said he expected the grievance to be filed today. The Angels suspended Johnson Saturday, accusing him of lackadaisical play.

Miller said the club in dealing with the situation could have suspended Johnson for 30 days after showing just cause, or could have released him outright.

He indicated that Angel general manager Dick Walsh gave Johnson a letter when he suspended him in which he used wording from league contract rule 21A which deals with gambling and throwing games.

Miller said Walsh may have taken the gambling rule phrase out of context to allow for the indefinite suspension.

"They're going to have to demonstrate there was a basis under the contract for suspension," Miller said.

He said a meeting would be held with the Players Association and Owners' Player Relations Committee and if nothing is resolved it may be to outside arbitration.

Babe Ruth League held make-up games last night. In the first game Merchants won 15-6 over Anderson-Frazier. Blevins was defeated 8-0 by Corn Belt in the second game.

Hope Auto edged CBC's 9 to 8

In last night's Little League action at K-Park, Sheriff's team defeated Lions' 5-2. In the second game, Barry's was downed by James Motor Company 13-2. The score was 9-8 in the third game as Hope Auto edged CBC's.

Seaver Has 1,000th Strikeout

By HAL BOCK

It starts deep in the throat, works its way up over the tongue and explodes through the teeth. It is a long, lusty "booooo" and it is the trademark of the Philadelphia fan.

Phillie fans boo so much that there have been times the Liberty Bell and Star Spangled Banner were considered in danger next. But they pulled a switch on Tuesday night and, believe it or not, they cheered.

Oh, it wasn't a Phillie they cheered, of course. It was Tom Seaver of the New York Mets, whose 3-0 13-strikeout shutout included the 1,000th strikeout of his career.

Seaver's four-hitter enabled the Mets to chop one game off Pittsburgh's National League East lead as the Pirates bowed to St. Louis 8-3. Elsewhere in the NL, Cincinnati bombed Montreal 14-0, Chicago nipped Los Angeles 3-2, Atlanta edged Houston 5-4 and San Francisco downed San Diego 6-4.

In the American League, New York ripped Cleveland 9-2, Milwaukee topped Chicago 5-2, Boston downed Washington 6-2, Baltimore walloped Detroit 15-6 after the Tigers had won a game suspended Monday night 9-4, Kansas City edged California 2-1 and Minnesota trimmed Oakland 5-3.

When Seaver fanned Willie Montanez leading off the seventh inning for his 1,000th career strikeout, the scoreboard flashed the news to fans in Veterans Stadium. The crowd of 22,017 gave Seaver a standing ovation that the right-hander admitted was "a bit of a surprise."

Seaver responded by fanning the next two batters as well as two more in the eighth, running his career total to 1,004.

Meanwhile, the Cardinals gave the Mets a lift by knocking off the Pirates.

Lou Brock and Joe Torre smacked St. Louis homers and pitcher Reggie Cleveland drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double to pace a seven-run third inning that put the Cards in control.

Richie Hebner homered for Cincinnati looked more like the Big Red Machine, unloading a 23-hit attack to wallop Montreal. Tommy Helms led the Reds' attack with four hits. Buddy Bradford and Pete Rose each homered with Bradford driving in four runs and Johnny Bench delivering three.

Ron Santo drove in two runs including Chicago's game-winner with an eighth inning sacrifice fly that beat Los Angeles.

The Dodgers had just tied the game with a run in the eighth when Paul Popovich and Billy Williams opened the bottom half of the inning with consecutive singles, bringing up Santo, who was hitless for the day.

"I was struggling all day,"

by OLDERMAN

righthander has to peek over his left shoulder to make sure the man on base doesn't stake out too much of a lead. Whitey Ford was a master at masking his move to pitch and flipping over to first instead to trap the runner.

There's also a technique for making sure a runner on second base doesn't get too far down the line to third. When Alvin Dark and Eddie Stanky were the second base combo for the Giants, they had the timing down pat to break for the bag behind the runner and take the pitcher's throw for the pickoff, with an actual sequence of seconds allotted for the play.

Regatta to Begin Today

By NOEL HUGHES
HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (AP) — Crews from 10 countries pull oars in earnest today to get this 136th Henley Royal Regatta underway for its four-day voyage.

There are 12 glittering prizes—regarded as the highest honors in world rowing—to be won and 37 overseas entries are among more than 200 competing crews on the one-mile, 550-yard course.

Undaunted by heavy rain, which has made the normally placid River Thames a swollen menace, regatta officials had everything ready for one of the great social occasions of the year.

Thousands of Henley devotees give the regatta a strawberry-and-cream atmosphere and women's fashions vie with the rowing for attention.

Competition is expected to be extremely tough with the best British crews out to stop the overseas domination of recent years.

First to carry the American colors will be Jack Dietz of the New York Athletic Club who takes on Scotland's Jerry McCarthy in the opening round of the diamond skulls, Henley's top event for individual rowers.

Alberto Demiddi, the world sculling champion from Rosario, Argentina, has a bye in today's first round of the diamond while Bill Tytus of the Union Boat Club of Seattle, who won the Pan American Championship last week, meets England's Mike Bates.

Minnesota 5-3 Over Oakland

By MIKE RECFIT
Associated Press Sports Writer
If you don't succeed the first time, try, try again—even against Vida Blue.

That's what the Minnesota Twins and rookie hurler Ray Corbin were forced to do Tuesday night, and this time they succeeded.

Given a third chance against this season's pitching sensation the Twins beat the Oakland A's and Blue 5-3, and all but ruined Blue's chances of winning 20 games before the All Star game.

In other American League games, Detroit beat Baltimore 9-4 in 15 innings in the completion of their Monday night suspended game and then Baltimore walloped the Tigers 15-6 in the regular contest; Boston tripped Washington 6-2; Milwaukee dipped the Chicago White Sox 5-2, the New York Yankees blasted Cleveland 9-2 in the afternoon, and Kansas City nudged California 2-1.

In the National League, St. Louis horned Pittsburgh 8-3, San Francisco slipped by San Diego 6-4, the New York Mets blanked Philadelphia 3-0, Atlanta edged Houston 5-4, Cincinnati crushed Montreal 14-0, and, in the afternoon, the Chicago Cubs trimmed Los Angeles 3-2.

Blue, 16-3, had allowed the Twins only three runs and 12 hits and struck out 22 in beating them twice this season, the second time on national television last Monday when Corbin took the 3-2 loss. But the Twins weren't about to give in, and neither was young Corbin, 5-5.

They spotted the A's Dave Duncan's two-run homer in the second and then came from behind to end Blue's six-game winning streak with his first loss since May 28 and his first ever in the Oakland Coliseum after 10 victories.

And with only time for three more starts Blue, 16-3, won't be winning 20 games by All Star time July 13—unless he works on short rest or relieves.

Detroit won the suspended game with two out in the 15th when Mickey Stanley broke the deadlock with a single, and the Tigers added four more on a bases loaded walk and singles by Norm Cash and Tony Taylor.

Brooks Robinson had capped a four-run ninth inning for Baltimore with a three-run homer with two out that sent the game into extra innings Monday night.

The Orioles did not wait that long in the regular game, and neither did Robinson, who hit another three-run shot in the third after Andy Etchebarren hit one with two on in the second as Baltimore broke a four game losing streak. Jim Northrup drove in four runs with two homers for the Tigers.

The red-hot Red Sox made it five victories in a row as reserves Bob Montgomery and John Kennedy, filling in for injured regulars, each drove in two runs during a five-run second inning off Washington rookie Pete Broberg, 0-2. Kennedy's RBI came on a homer.

Jim Lonborg, 3-3, got the victory for working into the eighth inning before Sparky Lyle relieved.

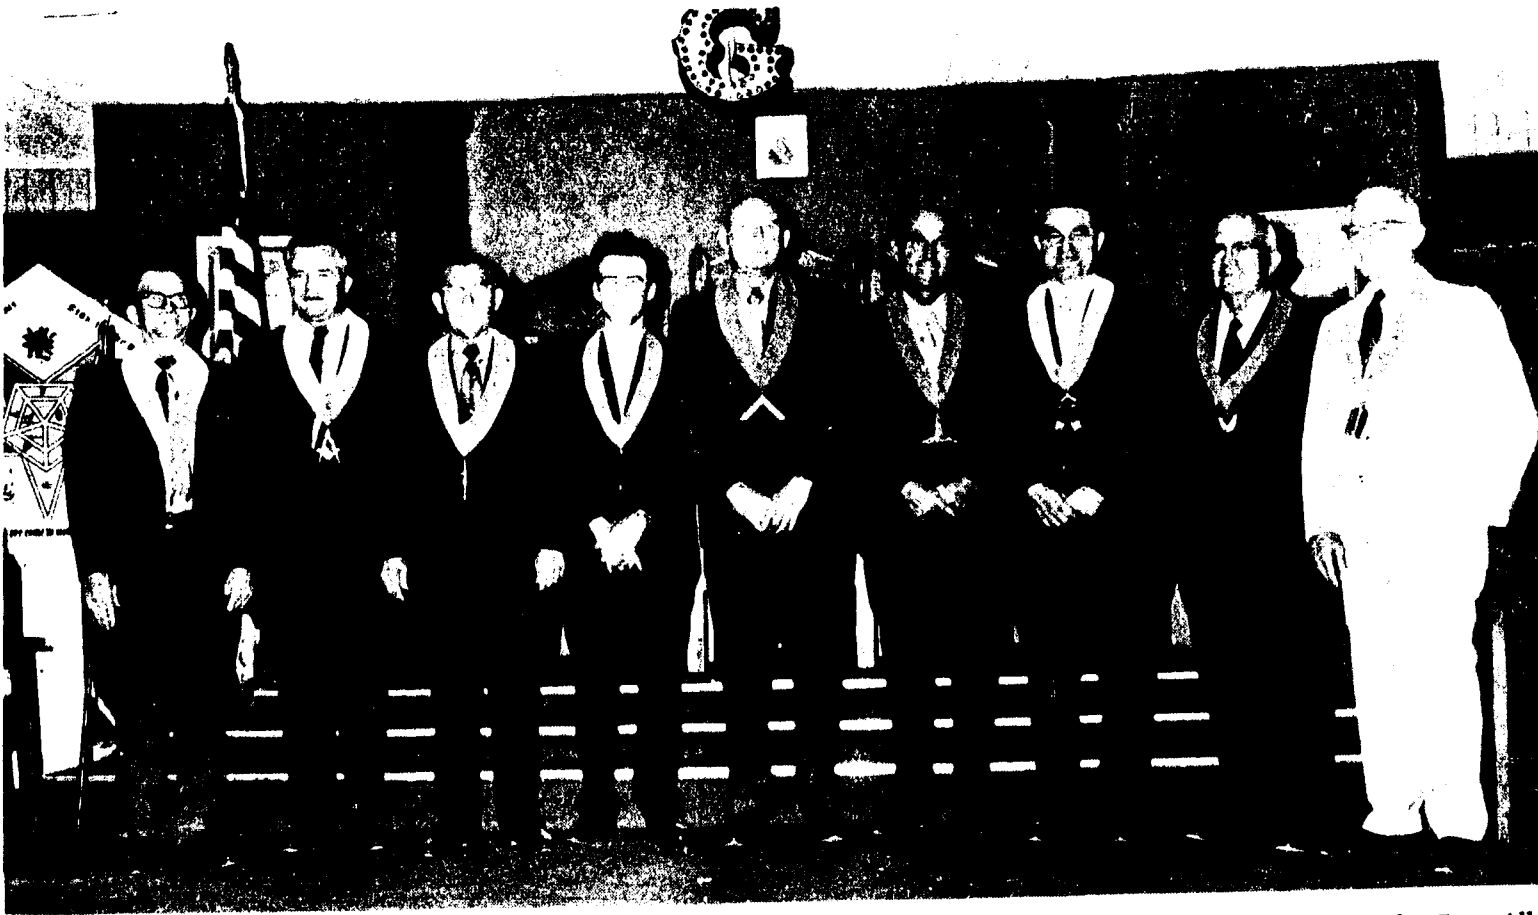

Milwaukee, another streaking club, won for the ninth time in 11 starts behind rookie Jim Slaton, 3-1, who scattered eight hits before Ken Sanders got the last out for him. The only Chicago runs off him were homers

Aaron to Enter Hospital

HOUSTON (AP) — Atlanta Braves slugger Hank Aaron says he plans to check into a hospital after the season ends for treatment of a knee ailment.

Aaron, who has been bothered by a constant swelling in his left knee since spring training, says he wants to "see why this fluid keeps coming back. My knee is starting to balloon up again tonight."

He said Tuesday he would check into a hospital "some place, I don't know where to see what can be done." He first injured the knee in a game with San Francisco last July.

Arkansas Downs Birmingham

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas beat Birmingham 4-1 in Dixie Association play here Tuesday night, on seventh inning play.

Going into the seventh inning Birmingham pitcher Sammy Ellis had his team leading 1-0, but that inning changed the game.

Kenny Reitz singled to begin the Traveler move.

A series of plays by the Travelers and wild throws by Birmingham left the Travelers' ahead after the seventh inning 4-1. Two runs were made on a single and one run on a wild throw to home plate.

The winning pitcher was Larry Koch. Arkansas will face Memphis Wednesday night at home. In other Dixie Association action the scores were: Memphis over Shreveport 3-1; Asheville defeated Columbus 3-2; Charlotte beat Jacksonville 5-3; Savannah took a doubleheader from Montgomery, 4-0 and 7-6. San Antonio beat Amarillo 16-11; and Albuquerque shutout Dallas-Fort Worth, 6-0.

ern California. Ross, 18, drafted No. 9 in the regular phase of the June draft. He was assigned to the King-sport, Tenn., club in the Ap-palachian Rookie League.

Signed were right-handed pitchers Jim Ross of Sam Houston High School, Houston, Tex., and Steve Busby of South-

No Charges in Roberts Shooting

KANSAS CITY (AP) — No charges have been filed in the fatal shooting early Tuesday of Larry Roberts, 22, a professional football player who was to have reported to the Cleveland Browns rookie camp July 11.

The prosecutor has turned the case over to the grand jury for investigation. Roberts died of a bullet wound in the lower chest.

Willie Earl Minis, 33, told authorities Roberts attempted to force his way into the Minis home about 1:30 a.m. Minis said he frightened away two other men who had been with Roberts outside his home.

Roberts was a running back at Central Missouri State College at Warrensburg and played in preseason games last year with Winnipeg in the Canadian League.

No Draft Law for 1st Time Since 1948

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Congress rushing to write a compromise two-year extension, the nation's draft law appears headed for expiration at midnight for the first time since 1948.

Senate-House conferees had saved a major stumbling block for last—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's amendment for a U.S. pullout from Indochina in nine months, passed 57 to 42 in the Senate and rejected 219 to 176 in the House.

Both Mansfield and House Armed Services Chairman F. Edward Hebert, D-La., who heads the conferees, said they doubt Congress could pass the extension before the midnight deadline.

Mansfield said he was not interested in any compromise of his pullout amendment.

"The Senate has spoken," he told newsmen.

The Selective Service System said it would halt the draft at midnight unless Congress extends it or President Nixon authorizes callup of students and other men whose deferments are expiring.

White House sources said Nixon probably would not authorize such a callup.

An Associated Press spot check found draft officials around the country were preparing to halt induction procedures until the draft is renewed.

Only the authority for actual callup of men expires at midnight. The Selective Service System which processes men through physicals and other preinduction activities remains intact.

However, the Florida Selective Service System directed its local boards to halt all induction procedures until further notice and several other states advised local boards to hold fast.

The national headquarters said the draft actually has stopped, since quotas through June already are filled and quotas for July and beyond will not be sent to the states until draft authority is renewed.

The Pentagon has announced a 16,000-man callup for July and August which it said could be delayed if Congress extends the draft in July.

PERSONAL FINANCE

By CARLTON SMITH

We discussed, in a recent column, real estate investment trusts—REITs, for short—as possibilities for family-type, nonprofessional investors.

It resulted in a number of letters from readers. Unfortunately, we can't counsel thousands of readers on their individual investment problems; it's a physical impossibility even to reply to the letters. We can only answer, in the column, those of general interest—such as this one from a reader in Westlake Village, Calif.:

"I wonder if you can supply me with more information on the REIT. Where can I obtain shares if they are available, and the price of each share. P.S. would appreciate a prospectus on REIT."—S. C. S.

For more information on "the REIT," put on your specs and reread the earlier column. One sentence tells you, "Today there are more than 150" REITs.

Where can you obtain shares? Reread the column: "You buy shares of stock (in REITs) just as you'd buy the common stock of General Motors or AT&T." That is, from a stockbroker.

You'd like "the price per share"? Reread the column: There are between 75 and 80 REITs that "have a regularly quoted market." You find the prices in your newspaper's market quotations. The prices change from day to day.

Our reader, Mr. S., obviously has a lot to learn about stocks and the way they are marketed—and this is why his letter is of general interest.

Investing in stocks and other securities is only for people who know a great deal about what they are doing. You are risking the loss of your hard-earned dollars when you buy stock, because there has never in history been a stock offered to the public that was free of risk—the risk that it might become worth less, or even nothing.

Yet there are thousands of people in this country who have some spare cash or savings and are intent on investing in "some good stocks" because they understand this is a good thing.

Sure, and you can also do very well—better than in the stock market—by investing in paintings. But does that mean you're going to rush out and buy a painting you don't know anything about, except that somebody said it looked like a good painting to him?

We hope not. And you, no doubt, realize that you'd lose your shirt unless you're expert enough to know whether this Matisse is a real Matisse or a fake Matisse—whether it's one of his good paintings, or an inferior Matisse that he turned out on one of his off days—and whether Matisse is likely to increase in popularity as the years pass.

Wouldn't you agree that, unless you have this kind of expertise, it would be foolish to invest in art? And would you also agree that it is foolish to invest your hard-earned money in stock, unless you have an equivalent expertise in securities and the stock market?

Please believe this, Mr. S. and other hopefuls—if you are so innocent and uninformed as Mr. S. shows himself to be, you simply have no business investing in stocks. Because you aren't investing, you're gambling.

Would you go down to the corner and play pool with the boys, at a dollar a ball, if you barely knew one end of the cue from the other? Same thing. Just keep your money in the bank.

Repel Leg Cramps

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Some months ago, one of the readers commented on wearing shoes to bed to prevent cramps. Since then, several readers have described their experiences in using warm socks or shoes to prevent leg cramps. Here are a couple of examples:

Dear Dr. Lamb—I found your comments on cold feet very interesting. I also wear socks to bed, besides wearing warm socks during the day. I have noticed that the cramps do occur following excessive chilling. I can feel a cramp tightening, and forcing the heel downward and pulling the toe up will sometimes prevent one.

As to whether or not shoes prevent cramping, I have had many cramps with shoes on. I think the socks and the general warmth are most important.

Dear Dr. Lamb—You mentioned that you would like to hear from people putting on socks at night to inhibit foot cramps. I am 69, have used the "sock cure" for about 15 years. I leave them on in winter, heavy nylon, wool or synthetics and sometimes long ones. I have been troubled with very painful cramps in my lower legs just above my ankles and in my feet and keeping them warm with warm socks seems to take care of the trouble.

Other readers have written that a folded warm blanket over the feet helps. The verdict thus far: Good warm socks do help. What is your experience?

There are several reasons why warm socks can help. Muscles are made up of structures that behave like a coiled spring. When they are warm, the spring hangs loose, and when they get cold, they contract. The contraction can be forcible and become a cramp. Any muscle that is chilled is likely to cramp.

Then why the legs and not the rest of the body? The warmth of muscles is de-

South put his king of spades on East's jack and noted that he had eight top tricks with three possible extras in diamonds. So he led a diamond to dummy's king at trick two and returned the suit toward his own hand. East discarded the three of hearts.

South had a good opportunity to bemoan his tough luck, cash out his eight top tricks and settle for down one. That would be a loser's play, but this South was decidedly not a loser. He simply played a low diamond with the nonchalant manner of a man who had no worries about the hand.

There is nothing unethical about this. No man is required to look dismayed when things go wrong. West believed South's cheerfulness and led his 10 of hearts, whereupon South cashed out four no-trumps.

East was very annoyed with his partner. He felt that West should have played his ace of spades and given himself a chance. East pointed out that his three of hearts could not have been read as an encouraging discard.

East was right about that but East also was the villain of the piece. East knew his partner had led fourth best. The only spades higher than the six-spot that East couldn't account for were the ace, 10 and seven. West was marked with all three and, therefore, East could have made things easy for his partner by simply discarding the queen of spades.

Redistrict Plan Gets Approval

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Almost five months after its Feb. 1 deadline, the state Board of Apportionment adopted a plan of redistricting for the state legislature.

The board adopted a plan Tuesday which created single-member districts for the Senate. The House plan approved by the board creates 10 multi-member districts, with the rest being single-member districts.

Under the House plan, 26 of the state's 100 representatives will come from multimember districts.

The three members of the board, Gov. Dale Bumpers, Atty. Gen. Ray H. Thornton Jr. and Secretary of State Kelly Bryant, were unanimous in approving the Senate plan.

The vote was 2-0 on the House plan, with Thornton abstaining. The attorney general said he could not vote for the proposal because of his strong preference for totally single-member House districts.

However, Thornton said that he thought the House plan probably was legally defensible, since the number of multimember districts had been limited to a few.

Pulaski County has five of the multimember house districts, each electing three representatives.

The board provided for one multimember district in Fort Smith which will elect three representatives. Apparently all four of Fort Smith's representatives reside in the area.

The board also provided for one multimember district in the Jonesboro, Fayetteville, Hot Springs and West Memphis areas, each with two representatives.

In each of the districts, candidates would run by position.

The board was under a constitutional deadline of Feb. 1 to complete apportionment to reflect population shifts of the 1970 census. The board failed to meet the deadline because the census material was not available.

The board met for 9½ hours Monday, before recessing at 11:35 p.m. Monday in a deadlock.

Monday night's meeting ended in a stalemate, after Thornton's motion to adopt all single-member districts in both houses failed for lack of a second.

Bumpers' plan, which would have created seven multimember districts, likewise failed for lack of a second. Bryant said after Monday night's meeting that he could support some aspects of the governor's plan, but he opposed the division of Pulaski County.

In his first motion calling for the creation of seven multimember districts, Bumpers proposed three multimember districts for Pulaski County — one electing six representatives, another three representatives and a third five representatives.

Bryant said he could support five multimember districts for the county, if they each elected three representatives.

Bumpers said the plan adopted by the board Tuesday provided "cohesive" districts, did not submerge identifiable minority groups and demonstrated communities of interest in each district. He said the multimember feature of the House proposal would minimize disruption of the electoral process by reducing the number of ballots that would be needed in elections.

The 1972 elections will be held on the basis of the apportionment plan unless it is overturned by the courts.

The board tentatively approved a plan in May to apportion both houses on a single-member basis. But, following a U.S. Supreme Court decision that multimember districts were not unconstitutional, Bumpers indicated there might be some changes in the original plan.

Shortly before the board met Tuesday, Pros. Atty. Jim Guy Tucker of Little Rock filed a petition asking the state Supreme Court to compel the board to fulfill its apportionment duties. Tucker filed the petition on behalf of Pulaski County Clerk Jerome Climer.

The tentatively approved plan in May for Pulaski County placed Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock, a close friend of Bumpers, in a district by himself. In Tuesday's proposal he was

JENNIFER RHODES

SEARCY, ARK.—Miss Jennifer Lynn Rhodes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Rhodes of Route 2 Hope, has been accepted for registration at Harding College according to Fred Alexander, director of admissions.

Miss Rhodes is a 1971 graduate of Hope High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society and the Beta Club. At Harding she plans to major in physical education. She will enroll for Harding's fall semester which begins August 23.

Harding had a 1970 fall enrollment of 1,916 students from 46 states and 17 foreign countries.

Open House at Hope Post Office July 1

July 1, 1971 has been designated Postal Service Day not only to commemorate the official inauguration of the United States Postal Service, but in hopes of doing something more. The Postal Service would like July 1 to be a day when the general public and the people of the Postal Service can join together in a warm and friendly manner. It is the desire of the Postal Service that the relationship of the Post Office and the community which it serves be reemphasized, when customers can come into their local post office and learn more about this service and how the Postal Service can better serve them.

The Hope Post Office will have available in the lobby free souvenirs—commemorative first day cover envelopes and the new Postal Service 8 cent stamps. The public is invited to make a tour through the Hope Post Office if they care to. Employees of the office will welcome the opportunity to visit them and explain the function of the office.

The board met for 9½ hours Monday, before recessing at 11:35 p.m. Monday in a deadlock.

Monday night's meeting ended in a stalemate, after Thornton's motion to adopt all single-member districts in both houses failed for lack of a second.

Bumpers' plan, which would have created seven multimember districts, likewise failed for lack of a second. Bryant said after Monday night's meeting that he could support some aspects of the governor's plan, but he opposed the division of Pulaski County.

The tentatively approved plan in May for Pulaski County placed Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock, a close friend of Bumpers, in a district by himself. In Tuesday's proposal he was placed in a district with Sen. Oscar Alagood of Little Rock. Sens. Joe Ford and Jim Fowler of Little Rock were placed together in another district. Sen. Max Howell of Little Rock, together with Ford in the May plan, was alone among the five Pulaski County senators in escaping placement in a district with another incumbent during Tuesday's revision.

The plan creates three Senate districts in Little Rock and Pulaski County south of the Arkansas River and two in North Little Rock and the county area north of the river. No incumbent resides in either of the two new districts.

Papers Show N. Vietnam Attack Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara recommended as early as Nov. 8, 1961, that President Kennedy combine any commitment of American troops in Indochina "with a willingness to attack North Vietnam," say the top-secret Pentagon papers.

According to the Pentagon documents released late Tuesday by Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, McNamara sent his idea to Kennedy on behalf of Roswell Gilpatrick, deputy secretary of Defense, and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

They were "inclined to recommend" a program set forth by Gen. Maxwell Taylor, Kennedy's special military assistant, that a U.S. task force be sent into the Mekong Delta, scene of heavy floods as well as an area of Viet Cong strength. The study, a large part of which was read aloud by Gravel at a hastily called night session of his subcommittee on public buildings and grounds, said Taylor told the President the force would have to engage in combat.

Gravel entered the classified story into the record of his subcommittee, then handed it out to newsmen.

The Nov. 8 McNamara memo, according to the study, said the Taylor program should be adopted "only on the understanding that it would be followed up with more troops as needed, and with a willingness to attack North Vietnam."

Three days later, Nov. 11, McNamara reversed his position in a joint memo with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, recommending deferring the dispatch of U.S. troops.

President Kennedy accepted this position, although the papers gave no reason for either the switch in McNamara's view or Kennedy's motives in following the Nov. 11 advice.

Education, no matter how costly, is never as expensive as ignorance.

Miami Gets Democratic Convention

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — City officials are estimating $12 million to $15 million in business for the city as a result of its selection by the Democrats for their 1972 national convention. They also are checking their security arrangements for the gathering.

The Democratic National Committee announced Tuesday the party will hold its convention in Miami Beach next summer.

"From both the economic and the publicity stand point it will be a stupendous convention," said Edwin Bishop, a member of the city's Tourist Development Authority.

Bishop said it cost $975,000 in goods and services to secure the convention for the city in which the Republican national gathering was held in 1968.

Although the GOP gathering was undisturbed, security is an important issue for the Democrats, still burdened with memories of their stormy 1968 convention in Chicago.

Police Chief Rocky Pomerance said he already had started work on security plans for the convention, including application for a federal grant to send his men to courses in crowd control and mob psychology.

Miami Beach is also in the running for the Republican convention although President Nixon reportedly favors San Diego, Calif.

Jack Jones Files Divorce Suit

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Singer Jack Jones has filed suit for divorce from his third wife, a former airline stewardess.

Jones' suit, filed in Superior Court Tuesday, said he married Gretchen Elizabeth Roberts, 21, Sept. 15, 1970, and separated from her May 31.

Jones, 33, previously was married to actress Jill St. John and model Lee Lawrence.

Nixon in FBI Academy Graduation

By MARK BROWN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Continuing his show of confidence in the embattled FBI director, President Nixon accepted a role in a pageant produced, directed and starred in by J. Edgar Hoover.

Rounding out the cast for today's program—the semiannual graduation ceremony of the FBI National Academy—was Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell.

The White House announced Tuesday that Nixon would drop by the commencement exercises for a few remarks following Mitchell's address to graduates.

The occasion is expected to evoke both some kind words for the 76-year-old Hoover as well as law-and-order statements by the President and Mitchell.

Although the timing is probably coincidental, the gathering

Wednesday, June 30, 1971 of Nixon, Mitchell and Hoover follows the most sustained period of criticism encountered by Hoover in his 47 years as the head of the FBI.

There is little question in the minds of observers that the twice-yearly events mark high points in Hoover's life. Beside him on the flag-bedecked stage are men who praise him; before him, police officers from every state and some foreign nations who can carry the sentiment back home.

The National Academy, which the FBI refers to as the "West Point of law enforcement," was founded by Hoover in 1935. As recorded by FBI annuals, the first act of the original 29 graduates was to form an alumni group and elect Hoover an honorary member.

Today's graduates bring the total number to finish the course to 5,934. Represented among the 100 are officers from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, Liberia, the Netherlands, Thailand and the Virgin Islands.

To a four-flusher, life is what you fake it.
